Cerebral Palsy of North Jersey was founded in Orange, New Jersey in 1953 to meet the needs of local children with cerebral palsy. The agency has since grown to serve more than 1,400 infants, children and adults with a wide variety of disabilities each year. The agency's programs and services include:

- Early Intervention Program: serves more than 600 infants and toddlers directly in their homes
- Horizon School and Horizon High School in Livingston, which serve more than 170 children ages 3-21 with multiple disabilities
- Adult Training Centers: three adult training centers (in Irvington, East Orange and Wayne) that serve more than 170 adults
- Shared living environments (group homes) in Maplewood, Orange and West Orange, with five more under development
- A specialized 24-unit apartment complex in Newark
- A weekday and Sunday respite program in Irvington and an after school program at both schools in Livingston.
