CREW Network Announces 2011 Winners of $100,000 in Scholarships

CREW Network Scholarships Awarded to Undergraduate Students Preparing for Careers in Commercial Real Estate

LAWRENCE, KS – September 9, 2011 -- Ten undergraduate college students will receive a total of $100,000 in scholarships through the Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) Network Scholarship Program, CREW Network announced today. The winners, who each receive $10,000, will be presented with their grants at the CREW Network Convention & Marketplace in Washington, DC this week. This is the fourth year of the annual program.

Launched in 2008, the CREW Network Scholarship makes grants to deserving students annually and will be supported by a permanent endowment.

"CREW Network advances the success of women in commercial real estate at all career stages," said Gail S. Ayers, CEO of CREW Network. "Our annual scholarship program is an example of making commercial real estate more diverse by encouraging young women to pursue careers in the industry. We also provide mentoring, and career training for women at all levels, including those who are approaching the C-Suite level in our industry."

The 2011 winners were from colleges and universities throughout North America:
